Through baptism, we trace a lineage unlike any other.

A holy line of kinship that redefines power and belonging.

It beckons us to come by choice.

To declare our intent.

To make known our loyalty.

Our loyalty to love. To repair. To justice. To Christ.
The waters of baptism free us from alliances that destroy.
May they wash over us and renew the bonds of God.

Opening Prayer

God of Living Waters, as we gather together in worship, pour out your Spirit upon us. Remind us of our baptisms. Remind us of our commitments to each other, to creation, to you. Help us receive this holy gift and this sacred responsibility that you bestow upon us. May we live out our baptismal vows in living in love, mercy, compassion, and care. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Reading of the Holy Scripture

Acts 19:1–7

While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul passed through the interior regions and came to Ephesus, where he found some disciples. <sup>2</sup> He said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?” They replied, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.” <sup>3</sup> Then he said, “Into what then were you baptized?” They answered, “Into John’s baptism.” <sup>4</sup> Paul said, “John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus.” <sup>5</sup> On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup> When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied — <sup>7</sup> altogether there were about twelve of them.
